

Educational attainment of American Indians and Alaska Natives varied by place of residence.

- Seventy-one percent of the American Indian and Alaska Native population, 73 percent of their counterparts living outside tribal areas, and 80 percent of the total population had at least a high school education. The percentage for American Indians and Alaska Natives in AIAs was somewhat lower, 67 percent.
- A lower percentage of American Indians and Alaska Natives residing in ANVSAs had at least a high school education, compared with those living outside tribal areas (68 percent and 73 percent, respectively).
- The percentages of adults with at least a bachelor's degree among American Indians and Alaska Natives living outside tribal areas (13 percent), the American Indian and Alaska Native population (12 percent), and the total population (24 percent) were higher than those of adults living in AIAs (8 percent) and ANVSAs (4 percent).
