

American Indians and Alaska Natives were less likely than the total population to be employed in management, professional, and related occupations.

- The distribution of employed American Indians and Alaska Natives among the six major occupation groups differed from that of the total population. Higher proportions of American Indians and Alaska Natives were employed in service; construction, extraction, and maintenance; production, transportation, and material moving; and in farming, fishing, and forestry jobs. Lower proportions were employed in management, professional, and related jobs; and sales and office jobs.
- Among the American Indian tribal groupings, between 22 percent and 29 percent of all groups were employed in management, professional, and related jobs. Similarly, between 15 percent and 25 percent were employed in service jobs.
- Lower proportions of Alaska Natives than American Indians were employed in production, transportation, and material moving jobs and construction, extraction, and maintenance jobs. Higher proportions of Alaska Natives than American Indians were employed in sales and office jobs and farming, fishing, and forestry jobs.
